Institutional Profile

THE INDONESIAN INSTITUTE
CENTER FOR PUBLIC POLICY RESEARCH

The Indonesian Institute (TII) is a Center for Public Policy Research that was established on 21 October 2004 by a group of young, dynamic activists and intellectuals. TII is an independent, non-partisan, non-profit institution, whose main funding stems from grants and contributions from foundations, companies, and individuals.

TII has the aim of becoming the main reference which is credible and influential in policy processes in Indonesia, especially related to human rights, law enforcement, public participation, human development, economic freedom, and institutional strengthening. TII has committed to giving contribution to the debates over public policies and to improving the quality of the planning and results of public policy by promoting good governance principles and public participation in the policy processes in Indonesia.

TII's visions are public policies in Indonesia which highly uphold good governance principles which are based on human rights, law enforcement, and public participation which is inclusive and meaningful in Indonesia.

TII's missions are to conduct reliable research that is independent and non-partisan and to channel the research to the policy-makers, the private sector, and the civil society in order to improve the quality of Indonesian policy-makers.

TII also assumes the role of disseminating ideas to the society so that they are well informed about the policies that will have a good impact on the people's lives. In other words, TII has a position to support the democratization process and the public policy reform, as it will be involved in the process.

The scope of the research and review on public policies undertaken by TII includes economic, social, political, and legal affairs. The main activities which have been conducted by TII in order to achieve our vision and mission, are: research, surveys, facilitation and advocacy through training and working groups, public discussions, public education, weekly editorial articles ("Wacana"), monthly analysis ("Update Indonesia" in Indonesian and "The Indonesian Update" in English), mid-year policy analysis ("Policy Assessment"), annual policy analysis ("Indonesia Report"), monthly discussion forum on policy issues ("The Indonesian Forum"), regular online discussions (Policy Talks; Initiative!), podcast on public policy ("Ngobrol Kebijakan"/"Ngobi"), and various social media creative content .
